

Giving and Receiving

By

Mark I. Clemons

If love makes the world go 'round, and God is Love, then prayer makes love go 'round.

I have needs, you have needs, we all have needs. God has pointed out to us that whenever we need something we must give in order to receive. We give our lives that we might receive eternal life. Jesus gave his life that all might receive victory over death. A young boy gave up his lunch and not only he but over 5000 people received nourishment. When you have problems you will find yourself receiving help as soon as you begin to give help to someone else with problems. When we give out of love we receive the greatest blessings of all.

Prayer works wonders for with God all things are possible. I pray for God to give you strength, courage, joy and peace. I pray that you might know the power of God going to work on the problems in your life. If you have special needs or joys that you wish to share with me, please email Mark@MarkClemons.com. But most important, pass it on. Please!!! Begin now! Select three or more people, friends, a neighbor, a relative not in your immediate family, someone in town or a long way off. But whomever you select, begin now, today, to pray for them. What wonders might come to pass if each of us prays for only three others daily?

Life goes on; problems beset each of us every day; but with the spirit of God in Christ, present in our lives, all of life becomes a joyous time. Now is the time to let the Lord help shoulder our burden as we take up another's load. Sing a song to the Lord in your heart and your troubles will seem much lighter.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Yours in Christ,
